VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Property is located only about one and one-quarter miles from the city and near school. This is one of the best properties in the vicinity to make money on. Owing to its location, the highest prices are always realized from the produce. The income from the dairy alone exceeds $2,000.00. With the farm will be sold all the personal property, including stock, tools and produce. There is probably over $3,000.00 worth of personal property on the place. Good apple orchard, also a large sugar orchard. This property has to be seen to be appreciated and will not remain on the market long at the price we offer it, which is $7,000.00. Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Rev. George Rogers of Windham has accepted a call to the church in Union, Conn., and has moved his family to that place.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed yesterday by John E. Morse, a laborer of Newfane. He has liabilities of $10,448.36 and assets of $3,291.

Cassius R. Peck of Burlington, the well known lawyer of the younger generation, expects to leave Burlington in the near future and to locate in Oklahoma, Arizona, or New Mexico.

Brigham Academy football team of Bakersfield went to Morrisville Saturday afternoon and played the team of People's Academy on the old fair ground. The visitors were winners by a score of 11 to 0.

Articles of association have been filed in the office of the secretary of state at Montpelier, incorporating the Swanton Piano Co. This concern has a capital stock of $3,000 and all its stockholders are residents of Swanton.

Work upon the flour sheds at Newport, which were somewhat delayed the first of last week when the workmen became dissatisfied with one of the foremen and instituted a small strike, was of short duration, most of those instituting the strike, returning.

An unusual accident happened on the electric car line on Shelburne road from Burlington, Monday morning. A cow owned by William Andrews was killed and the car and passengers were given a good shaking up. When the car got nearly opposite her the cow started suddenly to cross the tracks. There was not time enough to stop the car and consequently there was a collision. The cow was knocked down and carried a short distance and the car was thrown off the track. The car was made unfit for service and taken to the car barn where it will be repaired.

Safety Pins For Women's Hats.

No longer will women whisper of safety pins with bated breath, for with unaccountable boldness they are wearing them not hidden in folds of ribbon or stuck in some unobtrusive place, as when they were a direful necessity, but clasped on top of all the trimmings of the hat, where no one can help seeing them, says the New York Press. Made of gilt or silver, they are from nine to twelve inches long, shaped exactly like the safety pins used for horse blankets, with the long unadorned shank holding the hair and the hat in a tight grip. On the more expensive ones a jewel is set, but it looks out of place and the perfectly plain "safety" is nearer than the decorated articles. Of course the conservative matrons are not wearing them, but even they have ceased to be shocked since the pins are the "latest fad."

Ancient Irish Customs.

An ancient custom still prevails in Cork. Every three years the lord may or proceeds in his state barge to the mouth of Cork harbor and throws into the sea a dart that has a gilded head and a shaft of mahogany. This ceremony implies the dominion of his town over the adjacent sea, with all its inlets and islands.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxurious growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Kuropatkin's Charge a Deserter.

General Kuropatkin has lost his famous charger, Le Marechal, a gift to him from the czar, says a special cable dispatch from Moscow to the New York American and Journal. Le Marechal, a son of Lohengrin, the English thoroughbred, has in fact deserted. "General Kuropatkin" writes the Russian commander in chief's adjutant to a friend in this city, "had thrown the bridle over his arm and was patting the horse on the neck when it kicked, tore away and galloped toward the enemy. Four Cossacks immediately pursued, but their horses were no match for the general's thunderer, and the riderless animal got clear away. At last the Cossacks came back, exhausted and afraid to show their faces. The soldiers have generally taken this to be an ill omen."
